6th NCST Sutler's Row Links

Adding to the list- are you a sutler? or member that would like to recommend a sutler?
Send a note to Webmaster Walton with your recommendations

Where do you find such authentic stuff? We are asked this over and over. We are recognized for our authentic, museum-quality reproductions. It makes us look and feel exactly like a North Carolina Confederate Soldier from the 1860's. Some of us hand make our uniforms and equipment, but many of us buy it from folks who specialize in these wares. Like their 19th century counterparts, they are known as Sutlers. In the 19th century, Sutlers were traveling merchants who followed the army supplying soldiers with items they could not otherwise get. Cake & pies, canned goods, soap, clothing, pipes & pocket knives and sometimes alcohol & tobacco. Today's sutlers attend reenactments & living histories, selling uniforms, accoutrements and weapons that are exact replicas of those used over a century ago. Below is a list of some of the sutlers we do business with. Visit their websites to learn what is available. Shop around, but be careful not to buy junk; if in doubt ask any experienced member. We are always happy to take a new recruit shopping on sutler row and help them spend their money!

Disclaimer: The 6th NCST is not associated with any sutler listed and can not make any guarantees. We have done business with these fine sutlers in the past and have been pleased with their quality, price and service. We hope you will be too.
